FORMER PADUCAHAN

Mr. Wm Ellington, Once Proprietor of the Richmond Hotel, Dead.

Lived in Paducah for Many Years and Leaves Many Friends Here.

News has reached the city of the death at Calvert City, Marshall county, of a former Paducahan who had many friends here. He was Mr. William B. Ellington, for years in business here, and who left a host of friends among the older inhabitants of Paducah.

The deceased was born in Prince Edward county, Virginia, January 21, 1821. He came to Kentucky in 1858, and settled near Cadiz, Trigg county. He was a tobacco buyer there for some time, and finally came to Paducah in 1868.

He was for several years one of the proprietors of the Richmond hotel, the name of the firm being at that time Ellington and Gentry.

Later he was in the tobacco business. He was known to everybody in Paducah, and was a highly respected man. Later he moved to Calvert City, Marshall county, where he remained during his declining years.

He joined the Presbyterian church here under Dr. Hendricks many years ago and was always a man of generous impulses and progressiveness.

He leaves besides a wife, three children, Mr. Jule Ellington and Wm. O. Ellington, of Calvert City, and Mrs. Kate E. Looker, of Briensburg, Marshall county. The first named was in the tobacco business here until two or three years ago, when he returned to Calvert City.

COFFEE HEART.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES NOW RECOGNIZE THE DISEASE.

The Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette, a famous authority, said in a recent issue: "Medical examiners for life insurance companies have added the term 'coffee heart' to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. Its effect is in shortening the long beat of the heart. 'Coffee toppers,' they say, are plentiful and as much tied to their cups as the whiskey toper. The effect of coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently worse than that of liquor."

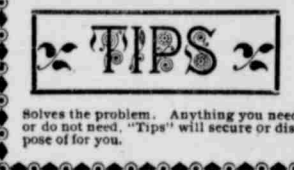

A well known physician specialist of Ladoga, Ind., tells how he treats such cases. He has had many such. He says: "I will mention one case in my practice—Mrs. H., age 54, very fleshy, family history good, had been for more than three years a constant sufferer from headache, heart trouble and smothering spells, accompanied by nervousness. Had to lie down when attacked by these spells. She was treating all the time, but got worse."

"I soon found out that she had 'coffee heart,' and promptly cured her in this way: I forbade her coffee and put her on Postum Cereal Coffee instead. She reported in five weeks and said she had not had a bad spell since and felt sound and well. This was four years ago and she is now a picture of perfect health and happiness."

"This is only one case out of many. I knew the doctor's bills would be small, but I also knew the case would bring lots of others to me. Few people realize the great value of Postum. It is not a 'cure-all,' but it has been the means of relief to perhaps more people than any one thing ever introduced in the American bill of fare. I have seen some wonderful results from its use." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Heligoland a Gretna Green.

The island of Heligoland still continues under the German rule to maintain its character as a sort of European Gretna Green.

The Heligoland clergy are Lutheran, and are elected by the people, after the ancient Frisian custom. But most of their services in connection with weddings are required, not by the members of their own flocks, but by outsiders, who cross the sea to the islands merely for the sake of getting married.

A music teacher of the island has officiated as the "father" of numerous runaway brides. When he gives away a lady whom he has never seen before to a gentleman about whom he knows nothing at all, he accepts an "honorarium" of £5.

She Was Prepared.

"If you keep on as you have begun, Mabel," complained the young husband, running his eye over the expense account, "we shall never be able to lay up anything for a rainy day."

"How can you say so, Henry?" exclaimed the young wife, righteously indignant, "when you know I have two of the loveliest rainy skirts that were ever made."
